

Passionflower Design

128 E. Broadway

Behind Passionflower's selection of novel kitchenware, clothing and other mementos, the corner with the craft items has a remarkable range of paper items, stamps and other gifts. If you're gifting for an avid Duck fan but don't want to buy into the fandom, try this cute stationary ($12.95). If it's something funny and quirky you want, check out the Grow Your Own Mushroom Garden Kit ($29). And if you need a gift that is relevant to everyone's life, give a small pocket Constitution ($22).

Literary Duck

895 E. 13th Ave.

The Duck Store is probably best known for selling textbooks and UO swag, but the Literary Duck stocks literature-themed shirts. The men's and women's shirts, made by Out of Print, have graphics inspired by tomes like 1984, The Very Hungry Caterpillar and Pride and Prejudice ($25).
