OREGON CONTEMPORARY THEATRE

Lord Leebrick Has A NEW NAME

As We Move Into Our New Home
In 1992 two ambitious young actors, Randy Lord and Chris Leebrick, set forth to create a professional theatre company embracing Eugene's cultural vitality and diversity. The company quickly earned a reputation for high quality productions of challenging scripts.

Fast forward 21 years The company has matured into one of Eugene's premiere performing arts groups, taking its place alongside Eugene Symphony, Eugene Ballet, Eugene Opera, Oregon Bach Festival, The Shedd Institute, and now Oregon Contemporary Theatre.

Honoring Our Founders
Our new home will be The Lord/Leebrick Playhouse

Our Vision To become a nationally and internationally recognized theatre acclaimed by audiences, artists, and critics for our innovative productions of plays by today's best writers and imaginative interpretations of classics.

Our Mission Oregon Contemporary Theatre creates bold entertainment, challenges expectation, inspires curiosity, encourages dialogue and supports positive change. We believe theatre can transform audiences, students, artists, our community, and the world around us.

We hope you will join in the excitement by becoming a subscriber and enjoying the four shows remaining in our 2012-2013 season. Flex passes that let you to attend at your convenience are available for as little as $60.

PARKING At Our New Home

Two city operated parking garages, both fully lit with 24 hour security, are just a half-block west of our new theatre under the Broadway North & South apartment buildings. Access to parking is off Charnelton Street for both buildings. This parking is open to the public (there are hundreds of spaces under each building) and it's FREE on evenings and weekends.
