There are some groups that will be remembered for being different. Reverend Horton Heat have decided to drop by, fairly unannounced, this week, to John Henry's. Yes, you heard us right — it's the Reverend Horton Heat. Since 1985, Jim Heath and his bandmates have been breaking out unique, hair-raising psycho-rockabilly music. For those that aren't familiar with the genre, take all the angst of punk, the class of swing, the crest of surf and the twang of country. Throw in a stand up bass and you're half way there. Seriously, this show is going to freakin' rock.

Reverend Horton Heat play 9pm Sunday, March 3, at John Henry's; $15 adv., $18 door.
