Check out this calico cutie! At the age of 3 years, she's all grown up, but her small stature and feisty attitude hint at a privileged past. True to her name, Princess is certain that she's the commandress of all she surveys – the house, the yard, the servants (that's you and yours, by the way.) She's happy to share her kingdom with her human subjects, but will grant no amnesty to other pets. If you're looking for royalty to pledge your allegiance to, look no further than this young heiress to your heart.

On your barks! Get set! Go! We're gearing up for our favorite event-Bark in the Park! May 19th will be our 20th annual 5k run/2k walk for the animals and it's your chance to make a difference. Form a team, collect pledges and show your love for pets in need. Learn more and get registered at www.green-hill.org.
