HELLO! MY NAME IS

Winter Green Farm

Growing A Healthy World since 1980

Join Us and Share in the Harvest!

If you are heading west of Eugene on HWY 126, just past the small town of Noti, on your right, is Poodle Creek Road. Not far up this road the valley opens up to your left and reveals Winter Green Farm. Two grain silos stand guard at the top of the hill, a big fir snag down below. Most mornings the mist hangs low in the fields, hugging Poodle Creek which snakes along, carving out the place where certified organic vegetables, basil and pasture have been grown for the last thirty years.

Three farm families and a dedicated crew steward the land at Winter Green Farm. Our mission is to be a productive farm in harmony with the earth, humanity and ourselves. We've created a healthy farm based on Biodynamic farming methods, our on-farm fertility system, crop rotations and respect for our employees.

We strive to make our food available to everyone by accepting Food Stamps for CSA payments, WIC vouchers at our Farmers Markets, and by donating food to Womenspace and Food for Lane County. We feel a responsibility to help connect people to the land so they can know and trust the source of their food. We are proud to be a part of your community through our CSA program, Farmer's Markets, pesto business and wholesale crops.

Our CSA (weekly vegetable boxes) provides delicious quality produce to Eugene, Springfield, Portland, Central Oregon and the Coast. We are at the Lane County Farmers Market on Saturdays, and starting in June we will also be at our farm stand in Eugene on 18th and Polk, on Wednesdays, and at the farmers market in Veneta on Fridays. Our organic pesto can be found at many natural food stores like The Kiva, Capella, Sundance, Market of Choice, and First Alternative Coops.

If you want more information about becoming a part of our CSA or on any of our other products and markets, we are online at www.wintergreenfarm.com, on Facebook, and at 541-935-1920
