Honey was abandoned when her owner moved and left her behind. It's clear that rough handling, winters spent outdoors, and neglect has made Honey wary of people and seem older than her 10 years. But dogs tend to find happiness where they can. After a few months of receiving warmth and affection at 1st Avenue shelter and in a loving foster home, she has blossomed. Honey takes joy in the presence of older children and just about anyone offering kindness. She's also keen on male dogs of the bully-breed persuasion. A dog that has seen the worst in humanity can be shown that we have so much more to offer. Honey is ready for her permanent, loving home. Please open your heart to a dog that will graciously accept it with open paws.

Shelter Animal Resource Alliance

Rescued Cat of the Week

Fifteen year old Honey is a very sassy and smart lady who will make a great addition to a quiet household. Honey would love to spend all day on your lap purring and chatting. When we rescued Honey from the animal shelter last year, she came with her favorite bean-bag kitty bed. If she can't find a free lap, she knows which bed is hers and will curl right up. Stop by soon and inquire about meeting this special gal.
