LETTERS

from skeptical to hostile towards the fee/tax.

Zelenka and Johnson did the measure no good by their condescending comments, portraying people who question the measure as “cynical,” “conspiracy believers” and “uncaring.”

Bettman McCornack was in her usual form, incredibly well-prepared with the facts to counter Zelenka’s and Johnson’s squishy “we care” pitch. And you had to love Evans, whose real-world experience with struggling families in his ward was a lot more persuasive than the “what’s a few dollars” disconnect of Johnson and Zelenka.

The final nail in the coffin was when Zelenka defended the extra $3.5 million giveaway last year to Capstone — over and above what Capstone said they needed to have a viable project. Now we’re supposed to toss more money at this city administration based on a councilor who shows that utter lack of due diligence?

Today I find myself humming the tune to The Who’s lyrics: “Take a bow for the new revolution / ... I’ll get on my knees and pray / We don’t get fooled again.”

Fellow progressives: Don’t be fooled again. Vote “no” on Measure 20-211.

OM-COMING

Well, the Dalai Llama will be visiting us in a few weeks [5/10]. Since the event is at Matt Court we have a perfect chance to meditate together. I am thinking a good series of om’s. I think we have the “O” part down (think of any basketball game where fans put their hand together and chant O) and adding the “mmmm” at the end should be a piece of cake. I hope we can do it in a respectful way and if we are lucky maybe everyone will join in.

THERE ARE MORE IMPORTANT THINGS THAN PROFIT

Our once pristine rivers were thick with schools of salmon, hawks soaring above, croaking frogs, and beautiful wildflowers. Many of these important waterways are now lifeless.

We are all part of a watershed and that watershed has a name. Everything our community sprays, grows, flushes, or discards enters our watershed. This is why we created the Mountain Rose River Project. Company funded and employee run, we manage 8 river ecosystem restoration projects each year, fully staffed by paid employees.

We invest in this program now, so the future won't be paying for it later.
