

THIS MODERN WORLD

by TOM TOMORROW

Claire Syrett and Chris Pryor, as well as the Lane County Young Democrats. Opponents like Paul Conte (who exaggerates the number of anti-fee folk at Jefferson Westside Neighbors) balk that the fee is regressive, but all of the endorsers above favor progressive taxation. Dedication to and trust in our community compel them to support this modest fee, which is the only practicable plan on the May 21 ballot to save our vital services.

I've been knocking doors for the fee for weeks now. There are two types of folks I meet: those who say, "Hell no! Not another dime!" and those who say "Alright, I'll step up to save our town." Democrats and Republicans in the "alright" camp are voting to save our services. Even Jim Torrey has plugged his nose and endorsed the revenue measure.
