Eugene Recreation Summer Camps are:

Dedicated. With a long, 50+ year history of providing summer camps and a strong dedication to connecting youth to nature, the Eugene Recreation has highly qualified staff that love having fun and creating an environment in which children can imagine, explore, learn, grow, and contribute.

Qualified. Camp counselors and leaders are trained in group facilitation and asset development, and all have First Aid/ CPR certifications, creating the safest environment for campers.

Inclusive. Eugene Recreation is a national leader in adaptive recreation services, which provides inclusion services for those campers who need some accommodations to fully enjoy their summer camp.

Accessible. Accessibility is a primary mission of Eugene Recreation. Our scholarship program helps eliminate economic barriers.

Conveniently located. Campers meet in neighborhood community centers, local parks and pools, with transportation provided to remote locations.

Best of all, Eugene Recreation Summer Camps are FUN!
