It took a few weeks of disgusting, humid cloudiness for June to arrive, but here it is, stumbling over the doorstep like a long-lost friend. And when the sun shines, you know how folks around here get — it's farmers market season, and options abound. The Lane County Farmers Market has just taken a fresh start on Thursdays at Fifth Street Public Market, the Fairmount Farmers Market begins this week on the southeast corner of 19th and Agate, Spencer Creek Community Growers' Market launches the season's second meet this Saturday, and the Cottage Grove Growers Market and Dexter Lake Farmers Market are already underway. Fresh, local produce, friendly Oregon handshakes and toothy smiles glinting in the newborn sunlight. What else is summer for?

For details on local farmers markets, see the "Farmers Markets" section of each calendar day. (And if you want to know what else summer is for, don't forget to check out our Summer Guide.)
