Being that July 4th is a celebration of all things American, we ask you this: What's more American than a rodeo?

The Eugene Pro Rodeo is under way at Oregon Horse Center, so cowboy up, wastrels. That's right, in 8 seconds or less you can watch a man thrown from a large, angry, horned mammal, cheer wildly and cram a hotdog into your gullet. You want more? Hmm, how about some motorcycle jumps? Evel Knievel always rocked the stars and stripes, and you can, too, while Justin Holman of Metal Mulisha X-treme busts some stunts. Dust, jeans, cowboy hats and dawgs, the roar of engines, the stomp of hooves, the squeal of a rodeo clown, the crackle of fireworks and the stench of a young, free nation: It's gonna be a good 4th of July weekend, folks.

The Eugene Pro Rodeo continues at Oregon Horse Center through July 6, starting at 4pm each day; $10-$30, ages 5 & under FREE. More info at eugeneprorodeo.com
