So many cats are abandoned these days, each one cast aside like a rag doll outgrown by a child. At some point in their lives, each of them was made a promise by a well-intentioned person. But the promise to house, feed and protect must prove too much to keep, so out the cats go, onto the streets. Every year close to a thousand are brought into our shelters where they wait for someone else to make the promise. Squirt waited nine long months. Other "tuxedos" have waited much longer. These cats are common. They don't have the alluring stripes of tabby or the brilliant points of a siamese. They're often compared to cows or rorschach blots. But what they are is love, plain and simple. Are you yearning for a kitty companion but can't make a permanent commitment? Lots of shelter cats need a temporary time out before joining the ranks of adoptables. Visit www.green-hill.org to learn about becoming a foster.

Fifteen year old Honey is a very sassy and smart lady who will make a great addition to a quiet household. Honey would love to spend all day on your lap purring and chatting. When we rescued Honey from the animal shelter last year, she came with her favorite bean-bag kitty bed. If she can't find a free lap, she knows which bed is hers and will curl right up. Stop by soon and inquire about meeting this special gal.
