Good golly, the Lane County Fair really went to town with their music acts this year, but there's one in particular that really stands out. We're talking, of course, about Cheap Trick. Yeah, that Cheap Trick: the '70s powerpop group that gave the world "I Want You to Want Me," "Dream Police" and "Surrender." Strangely enough, the group didn't get a true shot at stardom until Japan heard them — while the Trick's early American releases flopped, Japanese audiences brought the same albums to gold status. So thanks, Japan, and thanks Lane County Fair. Let's get sassy.

Cheap Trick plays 8pm Thursday, July 25, at the Lane County Fair; FREE w/fair admission, $25-$35 rsvd.
