Woof. It's still pretty darn summery out there. There have been a couple gloomy humid days, but at least it's not raining cats and dogs. That is a genius segue, which you would not ever have thought of, into the subject for this blurb: West Coast Dog and Cat Rescue's fundraiser at Sweet Cheeks Winery. The event is called "Daydreams at Dusk: A Purrfect Evening," and it sure sounds like a decent night. Satori Bob and Greg Ingold are all over the musical entertainment, local comedienne Leigh Ann Jasheway is poised to orate some knee-slappers, and you can wash down the delicious food with some Sweet Cheeks wine or Ninkasi beer. The night also includes a silent auction and, of course, the knowledge that just by being there you've helped a great service that takes care of animals. Meow.

Daydreams at Dusk occurs 6-9pm Thursday, Aug. 29, at Sweet Cheeks Winery, 27007 Briggs Hill Rd.; $30 adv., $35 door.
