HELLO! MY NAME IS

Savona Cook

I am the owner of SAVONA'S ~ Bitchin' Bohemian Boutique, where we sell new and resale clothing, accessories and jewelry for women. As the name implies it's not your average clothing shop!

I simply adore beautiful things and love making all my customers shine with clothes and adornments that make them feel truly beautiful. The other thing I love is a good deal which makes me strive to keep my prices low. Besides, I want my customers to have no fear when they look at my price tags. I do have some bodacious things & every now and then a few of them are spendy, but on average the resale is between five and twenty bucks and most of the brand spankin' new clothing items are under forty, with the vast majority of them under thirty.

My mother owned the first hippie clothing shop in Eugene, so you could say between us we've been outfitting the hip women in this town for a very long time. If you've lived here long enough to remember Andrea's Clothing and Cloth (now don't date yourself!) then you may remember being waited on by a surly teenager ... yep, that would've been me. I've mostly lost the snarky attitude long ago, but the love of fine fabrics and the knowledge of how well made clothes should fit and feel was bred in the bone.

You may feel as if you've seen this store before and you would not be mistaken. I opened the first incarnation of this shop in 2002 and closed it in 2010 when, to put it mildly, my world fell apart. This Spring I started to think maybe, just maybe, I should re-open and through an amazing series of events almost instantaneously the cards flew into place. It's a long story, but I first thought about re-opening in April and the new store was up and running by June, and I could not be happier.

I sure hope you'll come by and check it out my new shop ~ we're located at thirteenth and high and there's even parking behind the building!
