What do you get when you mix person-sized spiders and a dark forest? Potentially the makings of a horror movie, depending on how arachnophobic you are. But don't worry, because these creepy-crawlies are of a friendly variety. Join the folks of Nearby Nature in their Haunted Hike and see for yourself. A carved pumpkin-lit path will guide your family's way tramping through the fallen leaves in Alton Baker Park, encountering costumed owls, frogs and other creatures of the night. As a reward for all that bravery, snacks and crafts await at the end. And maybe you'll decide that these spooky specimens aren't that bad, after all, and worth learning more about.

Nearby Nature Haunted Hike starts 5:30 pm Friday, Oct. 18, all ages, bring hiking shoes & rain gear, Alton Baker Park, pre-reg. required, call 687-9699. $5, mem. FREE.
