As temperatures drop and heating bills rise, Eugene Water & Electric Board's 7th Annual Run to Stay Warm lets athletes and all others offer relief to income-eligible customers struggling to make ends meet. The Sunday before Thanksgiving, donors can participate in a 400-meter dash, 5K, 10K run/walk or even a half-marathon. Proceeds go to EWEB's Customer Care Program, which helps over 4,500 households per year. For runners, rank and completion prizes and an after-party promise to sweeten the otherwise bitter morning cold. If you can't run, you can make direct donations to EWEB's Customer Care.

Run to Stay Warm's staggered start times are at multiple locations, all near EWEB's riverfront headquarters, beginning 8:30am Sunday, Nov. 24; to register & for more info, visit eweb.org/runtostaywarm. — Adrian Black
