

A private school is opening its doors for anyone looking to check out a unique, democratic immersion approach to K-12 learning. On Saturday, Jan. 11, the Eugene Sudbury School Open House is a chance to meet the staff and learn more about the school's learning model, which focuses on supporting a learner in accomplishing their projects, helping students get where they want to go. The school's website says that it supports learning that is “self-paced, self-initiated and meaningful.” For those frustrated with the current public school system, it may be of interest to see a different way of doing things.

The Eugene Sudbury School Open House starts noon Saturday, Jan. 11, at 2370 Parliament St., call 683-5110 for more info. — Amy Schneider
