Learn how to start a fire, fix a bike, salsa dance and draw manga all in one day at Girls Rule! Parent-Daughter Fair on Saturday, March 15. Intended for girls ages 9 to 14 accompanied by an important adult figure, the fair is an opportunity to spend the day growing the relationship between a young girl and her parent or mentor. The day kicks off with two workshops, followed by a lunch and two more workshops in the afternoon. "The workshops are taught by a whole variety of folks who come and contribute their time for free to support girls," says River Aaland, volunteer coordinator for Ophelia's Place, the group organizing the event. A special appearance and science experiment by SLUG Queen Professor Doctor Mildred Slugwak Dresselhaus is the cherry on top of a wonderful opportunity to try something new.

The Girls Rule! Parent-Daughter Fair is 9am-3pm Saturday, March 15, at the LCC Center for Meeting & Learning, LCC Main Campus. $5 sug don. — Amy Schneider
