

A colorful bouquet of characters will brighten the banks of the Willamette River this Earth Day, including annuals, perennials, fruit trees, the occasional flowering shrub and many more.

It's the Lane County Master Gardener Plant Sale — a part of Eugene's Earth Day Celebration hosted at EWEB's River Edge Plaza — and it will feature plant vendors, information booths and the promise to interact with a variety of master gardeners, compost specialists and master food preservers, all volunteers from the Oregon State University Extension program in Lane County. Bring those burgeoning green thumbs and learn how to make your plants thrive.

The Lane County Master Gardener Plant Sale runs 11am-5pm Saturday, April 19, at EWEB's River Edge Plaza, 500 E. 4th Ave. FREE. — Samuel Wendel
