

Shakespeare perfected the art of the romantic comedy, and he truly outdid himself with A Midsummer Night's Dream. Fairy kings and queens, lovestruck donkeys and mishaps in a magical forest swirl together in this clever, fantasy-tinged romp. Narrated by the mischievous sprite Puck, whose twisted sense of humor inspires the famous line, “The course of true love never did run smooth,” this play has made over 400 years’ worth of audiences laugh, and you can find out why at LCC this weekend.

A Midsummer Night's Dream plays 7:30pm Friday, April 18, & Saturday, April 19, at Ragozzino Performance Hall, LCC Main Campus, see lanec.edu/tickets for tix. $10, $5 stu. & sr. — Amy Schneider
