

The stories begin in a familiar way: Cinderella wants to go to a festival, Jack sells his cow for magic beans, Rapunzel longs after a charming prince who offers to steal her out of her tower. Where Into the Woods departs from fairy tale, however, is in its exploration of what happens after "ever after," where there are still consequences for actions. Jack profited from slaying the giant, but what does Mrs. Giant have to say about it? Prince Charming married his Cinderella, but what happens when Sleeping Beauty catches his wandering eye? It's a clever musical with a streak of dark realism, and lucky for Eugeneans, the Actors Cabaret is doing its very own performance.

Into the Woods plays 7:30pm Friday & Saturday, May 2 & 3, & weekends through May 31, at Actors Cabaret, 996 Willamette St., call 683-4368 for tix. $16-$42.95. — Amy Schneider
