PHI BETA KAPPA ALPHA OF OREGON CHAPTER 2014 VISITING SCHOLAR

AMERICAN INDIANS in the AMERICAN POPULAR IMAGINATION

FREE PUBLIC LECTURE
WEDNESDAY, MAY 14, 2014, 7:30PM
UNIVERSITY OF OREGON: EMU BALLROOM
PBK.UOREGON.EDU

Philip Deloria examines the curious and painful dynamics surrounding Indian visibility in popular culture and discusses Metamora, Last of the Mohicans, Hiawatha, Cher, dreamcatchers, motorcycles, sports teams, George Catlin, Buffalo Bill, Avatar, The Lone Ranger, among others—paired with Indian invisibility in most social, economic, and political discussion. Deloria combines the arguments of his books Playing Indian and Indians in Unexpected Places to advance the case for Indian people's deep engagements with modernity over the last 120 years. Philip Deloria is the Carroll Smith-Rosenberg Collegiate Professor at the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, with a joint appointment in the departments of History, and American Culture.
