

What better way to support conservation than by dancing? And this isn't just any dance — it's the Ancient Forest Hoedown, complete with square dancing, bluegrass music by Blue Flags and Black Grass, a vegetarian chili dinner and a bonfire to round it all off. Cascadia Wildlands works to restore species like wolves to the West Coast, protect habitat and forestlands, including the Elliott State Forest, and raise awareness of local environmental issues. That's a pretty good reason to get up and dance.

The Ancient Forest Hoedown is 6-10:30pm Saturday, May 10, at Avalon Stables, 80143 Hazelton Rd., Cottage Grove, carpooling encouraged, see CascWild.org for tix. $20 adv., $25 door, ages 12 & under FREE. — Amy Schneider
