Prevention Plus Clinic

Welcome

Prevention Plus Clinic is a full-service medical practice with a holistic approach to staying well. We focus on the entire person, including eating and exercise habits, stress management, and excellent care of medical problems.

Alison Erde, M.D. is here to assist you in your healthcare by assessing issues and providing you with the most advanced and accurate information available, and translating this so that it makes sense.

Our care is both personal and professional. We look forward to being a part of your team.
