

Moving an event outdoors is an iffy prospect in the Willamette Valley because the weather is often a wildcard. But as Sasquatch Brewfest moseys down to the Ninkasi distribution parking lot for its 12th year, forecasts are predicting a sunny afternoon in the high 70s.

This year's gathering will include samples from at least 22 breweries, plus food booths, a silent auction, raffles, a home brew contest and the Beer Judge Certification Program. During the revelry, festival-goers can catch performances by Cherry Poppin' Daddies, Tatiamo, The Hank Shreve Band and the Douglas County Daughters. Get a free ride home on LTD buses by printing the Sasquatch coupon available at wkly.ws/1rn.

All the fun of Sasquatch is for the sake of more than just the love of good craft beer. A large portion of the proceeds go to the Glen Hay Falconer Foundation, which honors the memory of the longtime Eugene brewer by providing brewing scholarships.

Sasquatch Brewfest runs from noon to 10:30pm Saturday, June 7, at the Ninkasi distribution parking lot near 2nd Avenue & Blair Boulevard. 21+. $10 for a glass and two tasting tickets. — Shannon Finnell
