CALENDAR

Stories of merry pranks and a prankster passed from temporal spaces but not from memory will abound this Saturday evening at Ken Kesey Story Night. Come regale in a night that will include readings by Kesey compatriot, Merry Prankster and author Ken Babbs, as well as surprise guest storytellers and an open mic portion where anyone can relate their own Keseyian tales for five minutes each.

"Everybody who knew Kesey, even briefly or peripherally, has a story to tell about him," says Scott Landfield, owner of Tsunami. "He is still the famous man in our midst." Wearing tie-dye clothing or other period gear is encouraged. All storytellers (with permission of course) will be filmed by the Springfield Museum as part of its ongoing Kesey Archives Project.

Ken Kesey Story Night is 7pm Saturday, June 7, at Tsunami Books, 2585 Willamette St. $1. Signups for storytellers begins at 6:45pm. Call 345-8986 for more info. — Samuel Wendel
