HELLO! MY NAME IS

Sel Terre
(pronounced Sell Tehr)
Natural Products
for Beautiful Skin
and a Better World

We – Blake, Star and Logan – recently started Sel Terre here in Eugene knowing that we can make simply luxurious products that work wonderfully for all skin types and budgets alike without jeopardizing the standards that we strive to uphold. We pride ourselves in our dedication to using ingredients that have real names—and you will not find cancer causing parabens or the greatly destructive Palm Oil in our formulations either. As our name suggests—in French it means Salt Earth—we use ingredients that are of the earth and for the earth: salt, clay, coconut oil, olive oil, seaweed and mangosteen butter are a few that we choose to use.

Blake is our formulator and has over 15 years of experience creating natural skin care products and can often be found hiking through the area foothills while dreaming up new skin and body products. Star is a sales professional with over 25 years of experience in the natural products industry and enjoys spending her weekends at the beautiful Oregon coast. And Logan is our Production and Inventory manager. He is a graduate of the U of O and enjoys fly fishing on the McKenzie and Willamette rivers.

With our diverse skill sets and our appreciation for the outdoors, we believe that we have created a company for the future – one that employs sustainable practices and is concerned about the things that truly matter: a balance between human life and nature.

You can find our products at fine local establishments such as Market of Choice, Down to Earth, the Kiva, and Sundance.
