There's no greater compliment than an enthusiastic welcome. A cat so delighted by your presence that he immediately purrs is indeed heartening. Oliver receives every visitor with graceful affection - readily offering his head for a gentle hand and purring a song of salutation. These warm-hearted greetings are not all that make Oliver special. The one-year-old tabby is living with FIV (Feline Immunodeficiency Virus.) This means that he must remain indoors and only interact with other cats that share his circumstance. At 1st Avenue Shelter we believe that cats like Oliver are worthy of life regardless of special needs and know that you agree. Portrait generously donated by Lifeslice photography.
