Keynote address by Representative Jennifer Williamson

CALENDAR

In an indie-rock landscape growing more lo-fi by the second and thereby polarizing itself from the super-clean production on the other end of the pop spectrum, skillful singing is often abandoned in favor of voices that have "character." It's immediately refreshing, then, to hear a singer who can artfully carry a melody, enunciate words and, like, actually sing. Brenda Xu, a singer/songwriter from San Diego, is not only vocally impressive but a talented songsmith, performing '90s rock-influenced folk tunes with a deftness and vulnerability akin to Aimee Mann.

Brenda Xu performs a free show 8:30pm Sunday, Oct. 5, at Axe & Fiddle, 657 E. Main St., Cottage Grove.

Saturday Market

Lianne Dyche inlays colorful slices of agate into sustainable palm wax pillars to create her LightWorks candles. As the candle flame burns, the warm glow illuminates the intricate details of the stone.
