

East Lane Commissioner

WRITE-IN KEVIN MATTHEWS

Incumbent East Lane Commissioner Faye Stewart won in the primary with 50.05 percent of the vote. With a 10 percent under vote, only 17 percent of voters in East Lane actually went for Stewart — that's hardly a ringing endorsement for the pro-mining, pro-logging and pro-ill-advised scheme to develop a Goshen incumbent. Only nine votes led to Stewart's name appearing alone on the ballot. We support Kevin Matthews' write-in campaign because he has consistently shown himself to be a strong voice for the environment and the long-term needs of rural Lane County.

VETERANS FOUGHT FOR OUR WAY OF LIFE. IT'S OUR DUTY TO FIGHT FOR THEIRS.

America's 22 million veterans should get what they were promised. DAV helps veterans of all ages and their families get the health, disability and financial benefits they earned. If you're a veteran who needs free help, or you'd like to help us keep the promise, visit DAV.org.
