You'll find Claire in your lap when she's good and ready to get there. Nineteen pounds of Whippet can hold a surprising amount of confidence. In her eight years, Claire has developed more of a cat-like personality than that usually associated with little dogs. Mature and independent, she goes where she wants to and when it suits her. Anyone would do best to follow her as she's only seeking to satisfy curiosity or track down treats. We could all use a little adventure and deliciousness in our lives. Someone is about to get both in addition to a wet nose backed up by a warm heart. Lucky adopter!
