

It's Thanksgiving night: You're stuffed with stuffing and yucky with yams, and that chatty, neurotic extended family of dingbats and drunks and drama queens you so love has packed up and gone home, not to return till Christmas inaugurates another symptomatic round of obligatory togetherness. What to do? Just pour yourself a cup of yuletide cheer and flip on KLCC's holiday show, "Thanksgiving Gypsy Swing," three hours of hot jazz featuring the inimitable stylings of Manouche Romani guitar great Django Reinhardt and his friend, violinist Stephane Grappelli, who together founded the legendary Quintette du Hot Club de France, one of the most influential jazz combos of all time. Dig it, pilgrim.

"Thanksgiving Gypsy Swing" plays 9-midnight Thursday, Nov. 27, on radio-free KLCC 89.7 FM.
