The phrase "patience is a virtue" was coined with cats in mind. To gain the trust of a cat that stingly doles it out is quite the accomplishment. But patience is most difficult when the object of your attention is so much beauty. Callie's eyes, bright like the sun itself, will rest on you infrequently. Her lush, alabaster coat, perpetually beyond reach, will tease mercilessly. Resisting the urge to invade her personal space prematurely will not be easy. Gather strength by imagining the eventual reward of her soft head pushing into your hand, a look of adoration in those gold-spun eyes, and your new mastery and title of Cat Whisperer.
