

WELL VERSED IN BEING HUMAN

We search and create.

Now is the time to fix what needs to be broken. Because the world is moving in ways you won't see until tomorrow—and tomorrow is always two days too late. But, you. You found a trick to trick tomorrow. To prepare for life's great unpreparedness. Grab everything. Share genetic code with a Latin scholar on your way to rewrite public policy. Experiment with green chemistry and free speech before changing the world. Again. Well rounded doesn't even cover it. You are well versed in being human. After 138 years of intellectual experimentation and scientific collaboration, we watch the sun rise over these trees for one reason. To find a better way. Now is the time. Find yours.
