The Oregon Writer's Collective presents another evening of poetry and prose Tuesday at The Barn Light as part of its bi-monthly reading series nurturing "working literary writers, particularly those who are beginning their careers." Serena Markstrom Nugent (pictured) will be reading along with Michael McDermit and Brie Huling. For those, like us, who have missed Nugent's voice in the written form since she parted ways with the R-G, what better way to spend an evening than listening to tales from a woman who "now spends her days with small hands grabbing at her breasts, but the only tips she gets from strangers concern how to raise the baby?"
