

WHAT'S HAPPENING

In keeping with the anti-establishmentarian spirit of the Whit, the Last Friday Art Walk is as ragtag and gorgeously unorganized as the neighborhood in which it takes place. Basically, if you wander out after sundown in the Whiteaker neighborhood and hit up any sort of artsy venue — galleries, of course, but also bars, coffee shops, breweries, tattoo parlors, etc. — you're likely to find an opening of sorts, featuring work by artist(s) and sometimes wine, food and live music. Highlights this month feature Hanif Panni's Animal exhibit at Ninkasi (272 Van Buren), oil and acrylic paintings by Marlene Bremner (whose work is pictured) at Wandering Goat (268 Madison) and "Visions of Portland and Other Works" by A. Julian Boyer at Oakshire Public House (207 Madison).

The Last Friday Art Walk takes place 6-9 pm (some places stay open later) Friday, Jan. 30, at various locations in the Whiteaker neighborhood, where you never know what you'll find but, likely, you'll find what you need; for more information, visit wkly.ws/1wz.
