

Roses are red, violets are blue, V-Day is coming, what the hell you gonna do? Certainly no day of the year is more poetic than Feb. 14, and luckily, the Eugene Poetry Slam has your back. For the first time in the monthly event's history, EPS night falls smack dab on Valentine's Day. This month's featured guest, Portland poet Doc Luben, is a perfect fit for the occasion, too. Forget his credentials as a finalist in the 2013 Individual World Poetry Slam, the Tuscon, Arizona, Grand Slam Champ and a contributor to anthologies from renowned poetry press Write Bloody — above everything, Luben is a huge, powerful ball of compassion and charm. His poems are electrically emotive, inspiring you to snuggle up to your date and feel the lovin' — or even get onstage yourself and poeticize. Just be sure to read the official slam rules first.

The Eugene Poetry Slam takes place Saturday, Feb. 14, with signup at 7 pm for the open mic, and the show kicking off at 8 pm at Tsunami Books, 2585 Willamette. $5-$10 sliding scale. All ages. — Isabel Zacharias
