Now that the flatulent, big-money hype and militant commercialism of the Super Bowl has passed, it's time to get down to some real sport: Enter the Eugene Reign, our very own women's rugby team, which opens its season Saturday versus the scrummy ladies of Boise. If you've never seen a women's rugby game, do yourself a favor: These girls are tough, aggressive and not afraid of the sorts of high-contact collisions that would make NFL players — with their pneumatic protective pads and high-tech helmets — quaver in their cleats.

The Eugene Reign women's rugby team plays Boise at 1 pm Saturday, March 7, at Agnes Stewart Middle School in Springfield, 900 S. 32nd St.; attendance is free.
