A specter haunts Eugene. It expands across the city, painting red everything in its path, making believers of the once skeptical. We're talking, of course, about the intensifying buzz surrounding Eugene's Premier Development League soccer squad, Lane United FC. The two-year-old team — known by fans as "the Reds" — attracts a fiery crowd, and inspires an even more adrenalized booster club. Covered head to toe in bright red duds, Lane United's flamboyant supporters, the Red Aces, beat the drums and raise a wild ruckus at every LUFC goal scored. And their hard work seems to be paying off. The stands at the Willamalane Center in Springfield seem to grow more tightly packed with every home game, and this week there are three. With the wind of your cheers at their back, our Reds will thrice crush their adversaries.

Lane United FC enjoys home field advantage this week against three visiting challengers. At the Willamalane Center, the Reds take on Seattle's Sounders at 7pm Friday, the Puget Sound Gunners at noon Sunday and at 7pm Tuesday they face Liga Unida XI; tickets range from $5-$10.—Ben Ricker
