

Piggybacking on the worldwide success of the TED and TEDx Talks, a group of the city's movers and shakers are coming together for the inaugural TAD Talks (TAD being Technology and the Arts Downtown) Tuesday, Aug. 11, at Hi-Fi Music Hall. The first talk — "Downtown Eugene a Hub for Millennials: How Valuing Technology, Community and Creativity Inform New Ideas of Work and Play" — will focus on preventing a brain drain of young, creative professionals and college grads to larger cities and keeping them in the Eug. Presenting at the event are Matt Sayre of Technology Association of Oregon, Colette Ramirez of city of Eugene Cultural Services, Ted Brown of Indie Game Con and many more.

TAD Talks: Millennials and Technology is 5:30 to 7:30pm Tuesday, Aug. 11, at Hi-Fi Music Hall, 44 E. 7th Ave.; $4 for TAO members and $5 for non-TAO members. Go to eugenefilmsociety.com/tad-talks to register.
