With Micky and Minnie, brother and sister, you double your love. Adopt this bonded pair for only $50 and you'll get new family members that love to be petted and brushed. Their former mom had to go into assisted living and couldn't take them. They are ready for their new forever home.

There's no such thing as a typical dog. There are types and those who defy them, but each has his or her own, unique personality. Regardless of nature and nurture, there's one, particular motivation they all share: Love. All dogs seek someone to love. We can tell you that Otto is a playful, 7-year old that makes a great walking/running partner, but, you have to meet him to really know him. One characteristic you can be sure he has is a yearning to love you – more than you've ever been loved before. Visit www.Green-Hill.org to find out about the 2015 Pet Parade happening Aug. 23rd. All friendly, leashed Pets invited!

Ginger and Oliver Twist: you may have seen these two in the news. They were thrown from a trailer and left in a parking lot all alone. They're now showered with love! Oliver Twist is spunky and full of fun! He's ready for a real home. Ginger suffered a broken pelvis but will recover after surgery nicely. She needs an extra special family to love. Rescued Cat of the Week

Fred and Lucy are a young brother and sister pair that have curious brains. With wide eyes, they scrutinize and survey all of the things that make up their world. Standing on her hind legs to inspect foreign objects or to reach for a toy, Lucy always goes the extra distance. Fred is a whippersnapper who prefers to lounge with an outstretched arm or two in order to combine common relaxation with a healthy stretch routine. Both of these cuties are ultra sweet-tempered and would be agreeable towards children. Zoom into S.A.R.A.'s Treasures and into the warehouse, where these two currently reside, to introduce your gentle hand to these new soft and furry cats!
