HELLO! MY NAME IS

Sierra Hopkins

I provide confidential, affordable counseling and support services to people struggling with addiction issues, chronic pain, and other stressors in life. My background in psychology and addiction give me a holistic outlook on counseling. That means that I strive to create a safe, comfortable space for people to explore every aspect of their addictive behavior, find the causes and promote healing in the areas most effected.

The main focus of my practice is addiction counseling for those seeking recovery from substance abuse issues. Recovery is an individual process, unique to each person. It may include the usual 12 Step meetings and treatment strategies or those things may not work for you. My main orientation is to listen to each individual person and find ways to foster healing that works for them. Exercise, better diet, spiritual practices, rational recovery techniques, meditation groups, outdoor recreational activities, hobbies, employment are all areas of life that I can facilitate and assist with on your own unique path to be free from addictive behaviors. I meet you where YOU are and YOUR own personal goals and find what works!

My practice also focuses on supporting people with chronic pain issues, such as fibromyalgia. Many people with chronic pain feel isolated and this is where my Fibro/Chronic Pain Support group can help. You are not the only one going through this; you are not alone. My group is geared toward education and group interactions to help with understanding and giving you the tools you need.

I'm accepting new clients, and have a sliding scale fee structure. I base my fees on what you're able to pay. Call today to make an appointment or talk about my Support Group: 541-778-7045. You can also reach me by email: skm.hopkins@gmail.com
