JAN 11th HARDCORE PIONEERS BATTALION OF SAINTS

Battalion of Saints led by the formidable & irrepressible George Anthony, one of American Hardcore's truly great frontmen. Founded in 1980 Battalion is one of the earliest punk bands to come out of San Diego, with 9 albums various compilations and hundreds of shows under their belt. Sharing the stage with the likes of The Misfits, Dead Kennedys, & The Exploited to name a few. Local hardcore band Cuntagious opens followed by tour support Scalped hardcore punk from S.F. 9pm $8

Jan 13th T.S.O.L.

When T.S.O.L. blasted onto the California punk explosion in '79 with white face paint, 6' plus frames and blazing punk anthems, they were automatically a force to be reckoned with. By summer of '81, the band released the full length LP, Dance With Me, which propelled them to one of the top punk bands in So Cal, headlining 3000 seat venues with Bad Religion, Social Distortion and the Adolescents opening for them. We are pleased to have them at Old Nicks with Tour support Left Alone and Eugene's very own Pirate Radio Wed Jan 13 $12 adv $15 Day of show

ANDY KINDLER:
"LIVE AND IMPERSONAL"
 $10 JAN 17TH
 9PM

WITH SETH MILSTEIN

Andy Kindler is known in comedy circle as a troublemaker. Originally from New York, and now complaining from California, he annoys people all over the world. Andy was a frequent guest and correspondent for The Late Show with David Letterman with over 40 appearances. Each summer at the Just For Laughs Festival in Montreal he delivers the State of the Industry address to a packed ballroom filled with comedians and Hollywood industry types. He is infamous for his scathing attacks on the world of entertainment, including the previously taboo practice of making fun of his fellow comedians. Andy currently recurs on IFC's Maron and Fox's hit Bob's Burgers.
