

FUNDRAISER TO HELP FIX LANE COUNTY PETS

"Millions of unwanted animals are euthanized every year in this country" as the result of pet overpopulation, says Misha English, a board member for Stop Pet Overpopulation Today (SPOT).

Since 1997, SPOT has provided spay and neuter financial assistance for low and no income Lane County residents.

On April 9, Amazon Park Animal Clinic will present SPOT's Roaring '20s Casino Night and Silent Auction at The Shedd.

The proceeds from the auction allow SPOT to continue offering spay and neutering services for pets, and to raise a goal of $12,000 for SPOT's Great Pit Fix Program, which aims to fix 150 pit bulls. The Great Pit Fix Program will launch after the April 9 fundraiser, charging local low and no income pit bull owners only $10 to have their pit bulls spayed or neutered.

English explains that there can be a stigma associated with pit bulls, which results in higher rates of pit bulls at
