

Do you long for the drone of the bagpipes on cool foggy mornings? Do you ever find pants too restrictive? Are plaid skirts more your thing? Can't get enough haggis? Then you're in luck, because the 14th annual Eugene Scottish Festival is this weekend. Join the tartan horde for traditional Celtic music and dancing, a dog parade, horse-drawn wagon rides, vendors, sheep-dog trials and highland games, sword fights, an import shop and plenty of Scottish cuisine. There will be entertainment geared towards the kids also, including a bouncy house, face painting and more.

The Eugene Scottish Festival runs 10am-5pm Saturday, May 28, at the Irving Grange, 1011 Irvington Dr.; $5 per person or $10 for the family, w/a canned food donation. See eugenescottishfestival.com for more information.
