Press Release

To Our Valued Customers & Community:

What do we learn from the natural world?
When faced with change, we must adapt.
What is our challenge?

Down To Earth, located at 2498 Willamette, reopened late last year after the fire which destroyed Southtowne Lanes Bowling Alley in early August. Major construction at the former bowling alley site and adjoining areas will interfere with renewing our lease. Down To Earth is proud to have served the Southtowne community for the past 16 years. If the opportunity is presented, we may reopen at another location. We are grateful for the community's continued support.

Beginning September 1st, our Willamette Street location will become the Down To Earth Outlet Store for the remainder of our lease. In the past, Down To Earth on Willamette has offered most of the products available at our main store location. We are taking this opportunity to try something new.

We will be bringing you fantastic deals available only at the Outlet store, and our best-selling products at an excellent price. Our main store at 5th & Olive, located in the Historic Farmer's Union Marketplace will continue to offer the wonderful and wide selection of goods we have become known for: the beautiful, the functional, and the innovative. Thank you again for making us part of your community and for your continued support.
