

THIS MODERN WORLD

by TOM TOMORROW

WORD SALAD

YOU FOLKS MAY HAVE HEARD SOME WOMEN CLAIM THAT I'VE SAID AND DONE CERTAIN THINGS! WELL BUH-LIEVE ME, THEY'RE LYING!

AND MORE IMPORTANTLY, HAVE YOU SEEN THE CROWDS AT MY RALLIES?

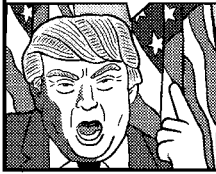

THE DISHONEST MEDIA WON'T SHOW THEM, AND THE FIRE MARSHALS MUST ALL BE DEMOCRATS-- BUT THIS I CAN TELL YOU, ISIS IS CHOPPING OFF PEOPLE'S HEADS! IT'S HORRENDOUS! JUST LIKE CHICAGO! STEP OUTSIDE AND THEY SHOOT YOU! THERE'S BODIES EVERYWHERE!

ALSO IF YOU SEE PAUL RYAN, I'D LIKE TO PUNCH HIM IN THE FACE, LIKE WE DID BACK IN THE GOOD OLD DAYS!

AND JOHN MCCAIN UNENDORSED ME, LIKE A DOG! WELL, I PREFER ENDORSEMENTS FROM PEOPLE WHO DIDN'T SPEND FIVE AND A HALF YEARS IN A P.O.W. CAMP!

WE HAVE A SPECIAL GUEST TONIGHT--REPUTABLE BUSINESSMAN ROGER AILES! HE'S HERE TO ASSURE YOU THAT TRUMP WOULD NEVER SEXUALLY HARASS OR ASSAULT ANYONE!

NO ONE RESPECTS WOMEN AS MUCH AS ME AND DONALD!

AS FOR THIS SO-CALLED "PUSSY" TAPE, IT WAS JUST LOCKER ROOM TALK--ABOUT CATS! I LOVE THOSE LITTLE FOUR LEGGED CREATURES! AND I LOVE GRABBING THEM!

I'VE NEVER OWNED ONE, BUT IF I DID, IT WOULD BE THE BEST CAT--AN AWARD-WINNING CAT!

YOU KNOW WHO DOESN'T RESPECT WOMEN? CROOKED HILLARY'S HUSBAND, WHO ISN'T ACTUALLY RUNNING FOR PRESIDENT! BUT THIS I CAN TELL YOU, WE'RE GOING TO BUILD A GREAT BIG BEAUTIFUL WALL! AND HAVE I MENTIONED THE SECOND AMENDMENT? PEOPLE ALWAYS CHEER WHEN I DO THAT.

SO IN CLOSING, DO YOU WANT TO VOTE FOR SOMEONE WHO DID THOSE BIGLY NOT-GOOD THINGS WITH THE EMAIL--OR FOR SOMEONE WHO NEVER DATED IVANKA?--THOUGH I TOTALLY WOULD HAVE, IF SHE WEREN'T MY DAUGHTER! THAT GIRL IS SMOKIN' HOT!

HEY, LOOK AT THESE HANDS! PERFECTLY ALMOST-NORMAL SIZED, DON'T YOU AGREE, PENCE?

WELL? DON'T YOU?

count passengers. Around 30 is common on a weekday, not at rush hour. And this is only at a given moment, not counting all those who will get on and off for the beginning to the end of a line.

Think about it: all these people sharing a ride. With the number of homes and businesses along the new EmX line, I am sure ridership will surpass that of the buses I ride. These riders are disabled, students, senior citizens, families and, yes, people who are commuting to work.

And there is the complaint about workers "standing around," a familiar refrain from observers everywhere. I can think of a few reasons to keep a cool head and not have your limbs in constant motion while installing permanent structures on a busy street, reasons that have to do with equipment, public safety, safety of the workers, the properties of the materials involved, codes, communication and more.

You may well be right about the traffic control being done badly. Don't blame the bus!

them aside so that the people can set up their tents or lay down with their blankets without fear of punishment? I can already hear some of the arguments against this. Increases in crime or drug use are most likely among the top contenders. However, do you not realize that crime and drug and alcohol use are already running rampant all throughout this city? It's not going to increase by giving these people a place to sleep. If anything, it will possibly confine the majority of it to those areas, which means you may not have to worry about your children witnessing someone sticking a needle in their arm right on the street corner.

The homeless problem here should have been nipped in the bud a long, long time ago. Instead, lack of logical solutions has allowed the problem to get way out of hand. I know that my solution isn't going to cure all of the complaints that people have, but it's definitely a start. Please consider my proposal, and if you agree, please help me in taking steps to put it into action by bringing it up at City Council meetings or writing letters to "the people in charge."

NOWHERE TO GO

This letter is in reference to the many EW readers that have written in complaining about the issue of homeless people here in Eugene. The problem lies with the fact that these people have nowhere to go. If Eugene had a safe camping spot for them to sleep at night, that would solve a big portion of the problem. Eugene has a lot of resources, such as food, clothing, and equipment that are offered to the homeless, but the issue that needs to be addressed is where these people are supposed to go at night.

Currently, they camp along the river or sleep downtown on the sidewalks, which, of course, is illegal. Consequently, citations are issued or arrests are made — but this only exacerbates the problem.

There are plenty of large, unoccupied lots around Eugene. Why not set a few of

PROGRESSIVE CHOICE

Dennis Richardson has a long history of building barriers to the ballot box. He recently said, "That is absolutely not correct ... It's not true."

The Bend Bulletin answered that question for us last week when it outlined his entire record of supporting voter suppression laws: "Richardson for three straight sessions as a state legislator supported or sponsored bills that some liken to voter-suppression measures that have passed in Republican controlled states elsewhere and have been struck down in state and federal courts."

Richardson fought to require voters to provide proof of U.S. citizenship to register, and voted against online voter registration.
