Jamel Shabazz Street Photographer

Wednesday, November 9, 7 p.m.

For over thirty years, photographer Jamel Shabazz has documented New York street life, most famously in his legendary images of the early hip hop scene, collected in his book Back in the Days. Director Charlie Ahearn's lively documentary gives voice and context to the evocative images created by Shabazz. The film traces his life from his army service days and his time as a corrections officer to his work as a groundbreaking photographer, capturing the pioneers of a revolutionary music and style. With interviews from Shabazz himself, hip hop historian Fred "Fab 5 Freddy" Brathwaite, legendary rapper KRS-One, and more, the film is a vibrant portrait of the origins of the worldwide phenomenon known as Hip Hop. (USA, 2013, 81 min.)
