Much like Anne Oakley or Calamity Jane, Fue is a lady made for working outdoors. She prefers living outside, and really enjoys her independence. She is comfortable around all manner of creatures, such as horses and goats, and would be fine living in a barn with them. Fue can be a bit choosy about who she is friends with and needs a family that can respect her space, when she wants it. As long as you provide her a good meal, a dry place to rest her head, and the occasional vet visit, this true western heroine is happy to rid your land of vermin and the likes.
